MD American Value Fund

Management Report of Fund Performance (December 31, 2023)

Investment Objectives and Strategies

The MD American Value Fund (the "Fund") seeks to achieve long-term capital growth with due regard for the conservation of capital, and income production as a secondary objective. The Fund invests in a diversified portfolio of primarily US equity securities of large, mid, and small cap companies.

The Fund employs a multi-manager approach which seeks to deliver excess returns compared to the benchmark and to provide diversification by avoiding overconcentration in any single style, sector or market trend. Fund assets are allocated to a combination of the investment advisers for the Fund, based on the Manager's assessment of the investment advisers' skills, the predicted capital market environment, and the anticipated risk inherent in each investment adviser's strategy.

The Fund may not invest in companies that manufacture tobacco or tobacco-related products or cannabis or cannabis related products.

Risk

At times, a portfolio can be subject to any number of investment risks. The risk level of the Fund did not change significantly during the year. Descriptions of the investment risks associated with this Fund are detailed in the Simplified Prospectus.

Results of Operations

For the period ended December 31, 2023, the Fund had total returns of 12.9% (Series A), 14.9% (Series I), 14.1% (Series F), and 13.8% (Series D).

The U.S. equity market ended the 12-month period in positive territory as the S&P 500 Index (C$) returned 22.9%.

In 2023, we saw the U.S. Federal Reserve (Fed) ease the foot off the accelerator and raise interest rates only four times this year versus seven interest rate hikes in 2022. The rate hikes over the last couple of years had a positive impact in taming inflation. Inflation fell from 6.4% at the start of the year to 3.1% in November, inching closer to the Fed's target rate of 2%.

The single most important factor standing in the way of lower inflation and hitting the Fed's target rate is shelter costs, which includes housing and rentals. Shelter inflation rose 6.5% in November and accounts for about 30% of the Consumer Price Index (CPI). CPI is used to measure inflation. Excluding shelter, inflation would have been just 1.4% - well below the Fed's 2% inflation target. Fed Chairman Powell indicated that the central bank was aware of the risk of keeping interest rates at restrictive levels for too long. Powell added, 'You wouldn't wait to get to 2% [inflation] to cut rates. It would be too late.'

Equity markets registered strong gains in the final quarter by expectations that interest rate cuts may be approaching in 2024. As such, the S&P 500 Index (C$) returned 9.8% in final quarter. The U.S. economic outlook has also brightened in recent months as healed supply chains and an influx of workers into the labour force are curbing wage and price increases without causing broad economic weakness.

Seven of the 11 GICS (Global Industry Classification Standard) sectors posted positive returns over the 12-month period. The best performing sectors were Information Technology, Communication Services and Consumer Discretionary. The worst performing sectors were Utilities, Energy and Consumer Staples.

Over the period, the U.S. dollar strengthened against the Japanese yen, while weakening against Canadian dollar, Euro currency and the British pound.

This is primarily a large-cap fund that uses a disciplined investment process based on in-depth fundamental research that identifies undervalued U.S. securities.

Out of the eleven sectors represented in the Fund, the IT and Financials sectors received on average the highest portfolio weightings, while the Consumer Staples and Real Estate sectors received the lowest allocation. The majority of sectors contributed positively to performance, with the most robust contributions coming from the IT, Industrials, Communication Services and Consumer Discretionary sectors.

The Fund's active multi-manager structure combines complementary investment approaches. The Fund is actively managed, with positions altered based on relative opportunities, there were no material shifts in sector positions within the Fund.

As at December 31, 2023, the total net asset value of the Fund was $290.79 million, an increase of 12% since the beginning of the year. The increase is due to net investment gain and net contributions, partially offset by income distributions to unitholders.

Recent Developments

INDEPENDENT REVIEW COMMITTEE

The Manager has established an independent review committee (the “IRC”) in accordance with National Instrument 81-107 – Independent Review Committee for Investment Funds (“NI 81-107”) with a mandate to review and provide recommendations or approval, as required, on conflict of interest matters referred to it by the Manager on behalf of the Fund. The IRC is responsible for overseeing the Manager’s decisions in situations where the Manager is faced with any present or perceived conflicts of interest, all in accordance with NI 81-107.

The IRC may also approve certain mergers between the Fund and other funds and any change of the auditor of the Fund. Subject to any corporate and securities law requirements, no securityholder approval will be obtained in such circumstances, but you will be sent a written notice at least 60 days before the effective date of any such transaction or change of auditor. In certain circumstances, securityholder approval may be required to approve certain mergers.

The IRC has four members: Stephen J. Griggs (Chair), Heather A.T. Hunter, Jennifer L. Witterick and Steven Donald each of whom is independent of the Manager.

The IRC prepares and files a report to the securityholders each fiscal year that describes the IRC and its activities for securityholders, as well as contains a complete list of the standing instructions. These standing instructions enable the Manager to act in a particular conflict of interest matter on a continuing basis provided the Manager complies with its policies and procedures established to address that conflict of interest matter and reports periodically to the IRC on the matter. This report to the securityholders is available on the Manager’s website or, at no cost, by contacting the Manager.

The compensation and other reasonable expenses of the IRC will be paid out of the assets of the Fund as well as out of the assets of the other investment funds for which the IRC may act as the independent review committee. The compensation for the IRC is an annual flat fee. Expenses of the IRC may include premiums for insurance coverage, travel expenses and reasonable out-of-pocket expenses.

The Manager is required to advise the IRC of any breach of a condition of any standing instructions. The standing instructions require, among other things, that the investment decision in respect to a related party transaction: (a) is made by the Manager free from any influence by an entity related to the Manager and without taking into account any consideration to any associate or affiliate of the Manager; (b) represents the business judgment of the Manager uninfluenced by considerations other than the best interests of the Fund; and (c) is made in compliance with the Manager’s written policies and procedures. Transactions made by the Manager under the standing instructions are subsequently reviewed by the IRC to monitor compliance.

The Manager, in respect of its management of the Fund relied on IRC standing instructions regarding related party transactions as set out below:

- Paying brokerage commissions and spreads to a related party for effecting security transactions on an principal basis on behalf of the Fund;
- Purchases or sales of securities of an issuer from or to another investment fund managed by the Manager;
- Investments in the securities of issuers for which a related underwriter acted as an underwriter during the distribution of such securities and the 60-day period following the completion of such distribution;
- Purchases of securities of a related party;
- Investment Advisor Monitoring and Oversight

Past Performance

The following bar chart shows the Fund’s annual performance for each of the years shown, and illustrates how the Fund’s performance changed from year to year. The chart shows, in percentage terms, how much an investment made on the first day of each calendar year would have grown or decreased by the last day of each calendar year.

The performance information assumes that all distributions made by the Fund were reinvested in additional units of the Fund and does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or other optional charges that would reduce returns. How the Fund has performed in the past does not necessarily indicate how the Fund will perform in the future.

ANNUAL COMPOUND RETURNS

The following table shows the Fund's historical annual compound return for the past one-, three-, five-, and ten-year periods ended on December 31, and since the inception of the Fund and series, as compared to the return of the S&P 500 Index.

	1 year	3 years	5 years	10 years	Since Inception
MD American Value Fund - Series A	12.87%	7.80%	7.70%	8.75%	4.54%
MD American Value Fund - Series I	14.87%	9.75%	9.64%	10.65%	11.73%
MD American Value Fund - Series F	14.07%	8.93%	8.84%		7.94%
MD American Value Fund - Series D	13.84%	8.70%	8.60%		6.61%
S&P 500 Index	22.90%	11.27%	14.88%	14.48%

[†]The Fund started series F units on October 4, 2017.

[‡]The Fund started series D units on June 25, 2018.

The S&P 500 Index is also used as the benchmark for this Fund because it represents the aggregate common share returns of the overall U.S. market. Although index returns are hypothetical—as they do not reflect the true cost of owning or managing the underlying stocks—they are one of several useful indicators. By comparing the Fund's performance to the movements of the benchmark, we are able to assess how the Fund is doing. Some short-term deviations can signal the need for change while others confirm the expectations of a longer-term strategy. If management were to ascertain that a fund's over- or underperformance was the result of excessive risk-taking or deviation from the investment mandate, we would, on behalf of all our unitholders, address these issues with the Investment Adviser and make changes if necessary.

As illustrated in the above table, the fund underperformed the S&P 500 Index in 2023. The Fund's primary detractor from relative performance was security selection, with major detractors coming via underweights to the 'Magnificent 7': Alphabet, Amazon, Apple, Meta, Microsoft, Nvidia and Tesla. Given the high valuation of those growth-oriented businesses, the Fund's underweights, although warranted given its investment style, detracted over 6% from benchmark-relative results.

² The management expense ratio ("MER") is based on total expenses for the stated period (excluding commissions, withholding taxes and other portfolio transaction costs) and the Fund's proportionate share of the MER, if applicable, of exchange traded funds ("ETFs") in which the Fund has invested, expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.

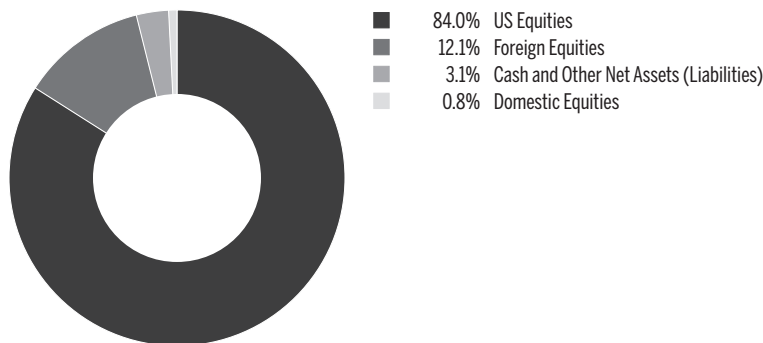

³ The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets during the period.

⁴ The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the year. The higher a fund's portfolio turnover rate in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the fund in the year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund.
