MD Growth Investments Limited

Management Report of Fund Performance (December 31, 2023)

Investment Objectives and Strategies

MD Growth Investments Limited (the "Fund") seeks to provide long-term capital growth, having due regard to the preservation of capital, with income production as a secondary consideration. The Fund invests in a diversified portfolio of equity securities from around the world. Assets are invested in mid to large-cap companies in industrialized nations. However, up to 15% of net assets may be invested in emerging markets.

The Fund employs a multi-manager approach which seeks to deliver excess returns compared to the benchmark and to provide diversification by avoiding overconcentration in any single style, sector or market trend. Fund assets are allocated to a combination of the investment advisers for the Fund, based on the Manager's assessment of the investment advisers' skills, the predicted capital market environment, and the anticipated risk inherent in each investment adviser's strategy.

The Fund may not invest in companies that manufacture tobacco or tobacco-related products or cannabis or cannabis related products.

Risk

At times, a portfolio can be subject to any number of investment risks. The risk level of the Fund did not change during the year. Descriptions of the investment risks associated with this Fund are detailed in the Simplified Prospectus.

Results of Operations

For the period ended December 31, 2023, the Fund had total returns of 19.9% (Series A), 21.8% (Series I), 21.1% (Series F), and 20.5% (Series D).

Global equities advanced over the 12-month period as the MSCI World Index (C$) returned 21.1%. What a difference a year makes. This time last year, U.S. Federal Reserve (Fed) Chairman Powell stated the Fed would 'stay the course' with interest rate hikes 'until the job [was] done.' While inflation was slowing, it was still elevated over 6%. Amid the uncertainty, a record number of CEOs said they expected a U.S. recession in 2023. Following that came bank stress, the debt ceiling and more geopolitical turmoil.

Today, inflation across the developed world has since more than halved, all the while growth has remained resilient and the recession many fretted over never happened. Market sentiment was even more unpredictable than normal over 2023, bouncing from recession worries at the start of the year, to resilient growth over the summer, to higher for longer in the autumn, and ending the year focused on future rate cuts.

The final quarter of 2023 delivered a welcome Christmas present for investors. A series of softer inflation numbers in the U.S. and Europe shifted investor expectations to expect pre-emptive cuts from the central banks sooner in 2024 than previously expected resulted in an 'almost everything rally'. The MSCI World Index (C$) returned 9.1% in the fourth quarter.

The majority of the Fund's regional allocations were to the U.S., Europe and Japan. U.S. equities represented the largest allocation, more than 55% the portfolio by market value, on average. The largest positive contributor to return was U.S. equities due to its large weight and very strong returns. European, Japanese were also very strong equities and the next largest contributors to return. Emerging markets was also positive although returns, while still strong, were lower than those seen in the U.S., Europe and Japan. Asia-Pacific was the only region to have a negative contribution to return due to weakness from Hong Kong, however, the region had a small weight. Currency exposure had a moderate negative impact on return, the Japanese yen the biggest detractor from a currency perspective.

Ten of the 11 sectors in the Fund posted positive returns over the 12-month period. The best performing sectors were Information Technology, Consumer Discretionary and Communication Services due to strong returns and large weights in the portfolio. Real Estate was the only sector to have a negative return, but it does not have a significant weights within the fund.

The Fund's active multi-manager structure combines complementary investment approaches. There are no major changes in how the fund is managed, however the fund is actively managed and allocations shift with relative opportunities.

As at December 31, 2023, the total net asset value of the Fund was $1.81 billion, an increase of 11% since the beginning of the year. The increase is due to net investment gain, partially offset by net redemptions.

The Manager has established an independent review committee (the “IRC”) in accordance with National Instrument 81-107 – Independent Review Committee for Investment Funds (“NI 81-107”) with a mandate to review and provide recommendations or approval, as required, on conflict of interest matters referred to it by the Manager on behalf of the Fund. The IRC is responsible for overseeing the Manager’s decisions in situations where the Manager is faced with any present or perceived conflicts of interest, all in accordance with NI 81-107.

The IRC may also approve certain mergers between the Fund and other funds and any change of the auditor of the Fund. Subject to any corporate and securities law requirements, no securityholder approval will be obtained in such circumstances, but you will be sent a written notice at least 60 days before the effective date of any such transaction or change of auditor. In certain circumstances, securityholder approval may be required to approve certain mergers.

The IRC has four members: Stephen J. Griggs (Chair), Heather A.T. Hunter, Jennifer L. Witterick and Steven Donald each of whom is independent of the Manager.

The IRC prepares and files a report to the securityholders each fiscal year that describes the IRC and its activities for securityholders, as well as contains a complete list of the standing instructions. These standing instructions enable the Manager to act in a particular conflict of interest matter on a continuing basis provided the Manager complies with its policies and procedures established to address that conflict of interest matter and reports periodically to the IRC on the matter. This report to the securityholders is available on the Manager’s website or, at no cost, by contacting the Manager.

The compensation and other reasonable expenses of the IRC will be paid out of the assets of the Fund as well as out of the assets of the other investment funds for which the IRC may act as the independent review committee. The compensation for the IRC is an annual flat fee. Expenses of the IRC may include premiums for insurance coverage, travel expenses and reasonable out-of-pocket expenses.

The Manager is required to advise the IRC of any breach of a condition of any standing instructions. The standing instructions require, among other things, that the investment decision in respect to a related party transaction: (a) is made by the Manager free from any influence by an entity related to the Manager and without taking into account any consideration to any associate or affiliate of the Manager; (b) represents the business judgment of the Manager uninfluenced by considerations other than the best interests of the Fund; and (c) is made in compliance with the Manager’s written policies and procedures. Transactions made by the Manager under the standing instructions are subsequently reviewed by the IRC to monitor compliance.

The Manager, in respect of its management of the Fund relied on IRC standing instructions regarding related party transactions as set out below:

- Paying brokerage commissions and spreads to a related party for effecting security transactions on a principal basis on behalf of the Fund;
- Purchases or sales of securities of an issuer from or to another investment fund managed by the Manager;
- Investments in the securities of issuers for which a related underwriter acted as an underwriter during the distribution of such securities and the 60-day period following the completion of such distribution;
- Purchases of securities of a related party;
- Investment Advisor Monitoring and Oversight

Management uses the MSCI World Index as the benchmark for this Fund because it represents the aggregate common share returns of the world's largest companies. Although index returns are hypothetical—as they do not reflect the true cost of owning or managing the underlying securities—they are one of several useful indicators. By comparing the Fund's performance to the movements of the benchmark, we are able to assess how the Fund is doing. Some short-term deviations can signal the need for change while others confirm the expectations of a longer-term strategy. If Management were to ascertain that a fund's over or under performance was the result of excessive risk-taking or deviation from the investment mandate, we would, on behalf of all our shareholders, address these issues with the Investment Advisers, and make changes if necessary.

MD Growth Investments Limited

Management Report of Fund Performance (December 31, 2023)

Net of the fees charged on the A-series, the fund underperformed over all noted periods. Specific to the most recent year, the Fund outperformed gross of fees, but the outperformance was not sufficient to offset the A-series fees. Stock selection was strong in most regions contributed positively to relative performance with the US and Europe having the largest positive contribution to relative return. Over the three-year period not having significant exposure to the Energy sector, which rose over 30% in Canadian dollar terms at a time when the broader benchmark returned just over 9% was the biggest headwind. Over the five- and ten-year periods, the underweight to US equities and overweight to emerging markets weighed on relative returns.

² The management expense ratio ("MER") is based on total expenses for the stated period (excluding commissions, withholding taxes and other portfolio transaction costs) and the Fund's proportionate share of the MER, if applicable, of exchange traded funds ("ETFs") in which the Fund has invested, expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.

³ The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets during the period.

⁴ The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the year. The higher a fund's portfolio turnover rate in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the fund in the year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund.
